Julie enjoys creative endeavors such as cooking, sewing, crafts, remodeling and gardening. Taking a brisk walk on the golf course or walking trails while having a lively conversation with a companion is a wonderful way to enjoy God's creation for her.

Her gifts to the Church are helping people to discover their call to the mission through faith in God's mission, by teaching the Bible in ways that make it a Living Word and seeing the many possibilities for God's work in our world. It is through the exploration and examination of our gifts and the needs around us that help to define our mission and guide our ministry. I look forward to sharing these and the many gifts you have together in Bismarck at Good Shepherd.
