Motion by Sharon Heilman and second by Evelyn Buchfink for a $50 memorial for Darlene Hingst, a longtime circle member. Motion carried.

Bingo at Missouri Slope Lutheran Care Center will be held on November 19 at 2:00 p.m. Third graders from a local school will be there to help residents play Bingo and distribute prizes. The congregation has been very generous with their donations for Bingo prizes. Members from various circles will also be there to assist as needed.

During October, 34 quilts, 23 baby kits, and 130 school kits were shipped. A check will be sent to Lutheran World Relief to reimburse for shipping costs.

Missouri Slope LCC Birthday party will be held November 15. Stephanie Falcon will coordinate with the activities director at MSLCC regarding assistance we can provide.

Updated membership booklets need to be distributed in January. Each circle needs to get updated information to Gloria Hassebrock as soon as possible. Information on Lydia Circle will also be included.

Lydia Circle, the new circle, continues to meet, with new members being added.

Decorating the Lynne Center for Christmas will take place Wednesday, December 4, at 11 o'clock, with a potluck salad luncheon. All are encouraged to come and participate in the festivities.

Devotions for December: Stephanie Falcon

Purpose Statement was recited and meeting adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeanie Werre, Secretary
